

FINDLAY-HANCOCK COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY YOUTH LIBRARY CARD DESIGN CONTEST

Calling all young artists! The Findlay-Hancock County Public Library is holding an art contest for a new youth library card. Semifinalists will be chosen by library staff. The winner will be selected by community vote. Artwork will be judged based on creativity, design, and how well the message of “Why do you love your library?” is communicated. The winner will be notified by email or phone. The winning design will also be posted online at findlaylibrary.org and on our social media.

Contest Guidelines: Anyone under age 18 (as of February 28, 2025) who lives in Hancock County, OH may participate in this art contest. Only one submission per person. Artwork must be handmade by the child, and it cannot include any elements that are in violation of or conflict with the trademark or copyright of any other person or entity. This form with your design on the back may be submitted as a hard copy in-person at any FHCPL location. You may also mail to: Findlay-Hancock County Public Library, Attn: Library Card Contest, 206 Broadway, Findlay, OH 45840. For questions, please contact the Youth Services Department at (419) 434-1077.

Terms and Conditions: By signing below, I agree to the following terms: I confirm that artwork submitted is my child’s artwork and property and is not subject to copyright or ownership by any other person. I permit the Findlay-Hancock County Public Library to use the content on this form, including images, for the purposes of the library card selection process. This includes reformatting content, but is limited to resizing images and adding text content to meet the needs of the library card process. Any further use of submitted content will be subject to additional approval of the content owner. All informational fields must be completed on this application or it will not be accepted for judging.
